Case No. CIV533328

STIPULATED [PROPOSED]
PROTECTIVE ORDER

21 In order to protect confidential information obtained by the parties in connection with this 22 case, the parties, by and through their respective undersigned counsel and subject to the approval 23 of the Court, hereby agree as follows:

24 Part One: Use Of Confidential Materials In Discovery

25 1. Any party or non-party may designate as Confidential Information (by stamping 26 the relevant page or as otherwise set forth herein) any document or response to discovery which 27 that party or non-party considers in good faith to contain information involving trade secrets, or

STIPULATED [PROPOSED] PROTECTIVE ORDER
CASE NO. CIV533328

1 confidential business, financial, or personal information, including personal financial information 2 about any individual or entity; information regarding any individual's or entity's banking 3 relationship with any banking institution, including information regarding financial transactions 4 or financial accounts, and any information regarding any individual or entity that is not otherwise 5 available to the public, subject to protection under Rules 2.550, 2.551, 2.580, 2.585, 8.160, and 6 8.490 of the California Rules of Court or under other provisions of California law. Any party or 7 non-party may designate as Highly Confidential Information (by stamping the relevant page or as 8 otherwise set forth herein) any document or response to discovery which that party or non-party 9 considers in good faith to contain information involving highly sensitive trade secrets or 10 confidential business, financial, or personal information, the disclosure of which would result in 11 the disclosure of trade secrets or other highly sensitive research, development, production, 12 personnel, commercial, market, financial, or business information, or highly sensitive personal 13 information, subject to protection under Rules 2.550, 2.551, 2.580, 2.585, 8.160, and 8.490 of the 14 California Rules of Court or under other provisions of California law. Where a document or 15 response consists of more than one page, the first page and each page on which confidential 16 information appears shall be so designated.

17 2. A party or non-party may designate information disclosed during a deposition or in 18 response to written discovery as Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information by 19 so indicating in said responses or on the record at the deposition and requesting the preparation of 20 a separate transcript of such material. In addition, a party or non-party may designate in writing, 21 within thirty (30) days after receipt of said responses or of the deposition transcript for which the 22 designation is proposed, that specific pages of the transcript and/or specific responses be treated 23 as Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information. Any other party may object to 24 such proposal, in writing or on the record. Upon such objection, the parties shall follow the 25 procedures described in Paragraph 9 below. Until the thirty (30) day period for designation has 26 lapsed, the entirety of each deposition transcript shall be treated as Confidential Information.
27 After the thirty (30) day period for designation has lapsed, any documents or information 28 designated pursuant to the procedure set forth in this paragraph shall be treated according to the

1 designation until the matter is resolved according to the procedures described in Paragraph 9 2 below, and counsel for all parties shall be responsible for marking all previously unmarked copies
3 of the designated material in their possession or control with the specified designation. A party 4 that makes original documents or materials available for inspection need not designate them as 5 Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information until after the inspecting party has 6 indicated which materials it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the 7 designation and copying, all of the material made available for inspection shall be considered 8 Highly Confidential Information.

9 3. All Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information produced or 10 exchanged in the course of this case (not including information that is publicly available) shall be 11 used by the party or parties to whom the information is produced solely for the purpose of this 12 case. Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information shall not be used for any 13 commercial competitive, personal, or other purpose. Confidential Information or Highly 14 Confidential Information must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a 15 secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Stipulated 16 Protective Order. The protections conferred by this Stipulated Protective Order cover not only 17 the Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information produced or exchanged in this 18 case, but also (1) any information copied or extracted from or reflecting the Confidential 19 Information or Highly Confidential Information; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or 20 compilations of Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information; and (3) any 21 testimony, conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal 22 Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information. However, the protections 23 conferred by this Stipulated Protective Order do not cover the following information: (a) any 24 information that is in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a receiving party or becomes 25 part of the public domain after its disclosure to a receiving party as a result of publication not 26 involving a violation of this Stipulated Protective Order, including becoming part of the public 27 record through trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the receiving party prior to 28

1 the disclosure or obtained by the receiving party after the disclosure from a source who obtained 2 the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the designating party.

3 4. Except with the prior written consent of the other parties, or upon prior order of 4 this Court obtained upon notice to opposing counsel, Confidential Information shall not be 5 disclosed to any person other than:

- 6 (a) counsel for the respective parties to this litigation, including in-house 7 counsel and co-counsel retained for this litigation;
- 8 (b) employees of such counsel;
- 9 (c) individual parties or officers or employees of a party, to the extent deemed 10 necessary by counsel for the prosecution or defense of this litigation;
- 11 (d) consultants or expert witnesses retained for the prosecution or defense of 12 this litigation, provided that each such person shall execute a copy of the 13 Certification annexed to this Order (which shall be retained by counsel to 14 the party so disclosing the Confidential Information and made available 15 for inspection by opposing counsel during the pendency or after the 16 termination of the action only upon good cause shown and upon order of 17 the Court) before being shown or given any Confidential Information, and 18 provided that if the party chooses a consultant or expert employed by the 19 opposing party or one of its competitors, the party shall notify the 20 opposing party, or designating non-party, before disclosing any 21 Confidential Information to that individual and shall give the opposing 22 party an opportunity to move for a protective order preventing or limiting 23 such disclosure;
- 24 (e) any authors or recipients of the Confidential Information or a custodian;
- 25 (f) the Court, court personnel, and court reporters; and
- 26 (g) witnesses (other than persons described in Paragraph 4(e)). A witness shall 27 sign the Certification before being shown a confidential document.
28 Confidential Information may be disclosed to a witness who will not sign

1 the Certification only in a deposition at which the party who designated 2 the Confidential Information is represented or has been given notice that 3 Confidential Information produced by the party may be used. At the 4 request of any party, the portion of the deposition transcript involving the 5 Confidential Information shall be designated "Confidential" pursuant to 6 Paragraph 2 above. Witnesses shown Confidential Information shall not be 7 allowed to retain copies.

8 5. Except with the prior written consent of the other parties, or upon prior order of 9 this Court obtained after notice to opposing counsel, Highly Confidential Information shall be 10 treated in the same manner as Confidential Information pursuant to Paragraph 4 above, except 11 that it shall not be disclosed to individual parties or directors, officers or employees of a party, or 12 to witnesses (other than persons described in Paragraph 4(a) or 4(e)).

13 6. Any persons receiving Confidential Information or Highly Confidential 14 Information shall not reveal or discuss such information to or with any person who is not entitled 15 to receive such information, except as set forth herein. If a party or any of its representatives, 16 including counsel, inadvertently discloses any Confidential Information or Highly Confidential 17 Information to persons who are not authorized to use or possess such material, the party shall 18 provide immediate written notice of the disclosure to the party whose material was inadvertently 19 disclosed. If a party has actual knowledge that Confidential Information or Highly Confidential 20 Information is being used or possessed by a person not authorized to use or possess that material, 21 regardless of how the material was disclosed or obtained by such person, the party shall provide 22 immediate written notice of the unauthorized use or possession to the party whose material is 23 being used or possessed. No party shall have an affirmative obligation to inform itself regarding 24 such possible use or possession.

25 7. In connection with discovery proceedings as to which a party submits Confidential 26 Information or Highly Confidential Information, all documents and chamber copies containing 27 Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information which are submitted to the Court 28 shall be filed with the Court in sealed envelopes or other appropriate sealed containers. On the

1 outside of the envelopes, a copy of the first page of the document shall be attached. If 2 Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information is included in the first page attached
3 to the outside of the envelopes, it may be deleted from the outside copy. The word 4 "CONFIDENTIAL" shall be stamped on the envelope and a statement substantially in the 5 following form shall also be printed on the envelope:

6 "This envelope is sealed pursuant to Order of the Court, contains Confidential 7 Information and is not to be opened or the contents revealed, except by Order of the 8 Court or agreement by the parties."

9 8. A party may designate as Confidential Information or Highly Confidential 10 Information documents or discovery materials produced by a non-party by providing written 11 notice to all parties of the relevant document numbers or other identification within thirty (30) 12 days after receiving such documents or discovery materials. Until the thirty (30) day period for 13 designation has lapsed, any documents or discovery materials produced by a non-party shall be 14 treated at Confidential Information. Any party or non-party may voluntarily disclose to others 15 without restriction any information designated by that party or nonparty as Confidential
16 Information or Highly Confidential Information, although a document may lose its confidential 17 status if it is made public. If a party produces materials designated Confidential Information or 18 Highly Confidential Information in compliance with this Order, that production shall be deemed 19 to have been made consistent with any confidentiality or privacy requirements mandated by local, 20 state or federal laws.

21 9. If a party contends that any material is not entitled to confidential treatment, such 22 party may at any time give written notice to the party or non-party who designated the material.
23 The party or non-party who designated the material shall have twenty (20) days from the receipt 24 of such written notice to apply to the Court for an order designating the material as confidential.
25 The party or non-party seeking the order has the burden of establishing that the document is 26 entitled to protection.
27
28

1 10. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of material as Confidential 2 Information or Highly Confidential Information, all documents shall be treated as such and shall 3 be subject to the provisions hereof unless and until one of the following occurs:

4 (a) the party or non-party who claims that the material is Confidential 5 Information or Highly Confidential Information withdraws such 6 designation in writing; or

7 (b) the party or non-party who claims that the material is Confidential 8 Information or Highly Confidential Information fails to apply to the Court 9 for an order designating the material confidential within the time period 10 specified above after receipt of a written challenge to such designation; or 11 (c) the Court rules the material is not Confidential Information or Highly 12 Confidential Information.

13 11. All provisions of this Order restricting the communication or use of Confidential
14 Information or Highly Confidential Information shall continue to be binding after the conclusion 15 of this action, unless otherwise agreed or ordered. Upon conclusion of the litigation, a party in the 16 possession of Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information shall within sixty (60) 17 days either (a) return such documents to counsel for the party or non-party who provided such 18 information, or (b) destroy such documents. Whether the Confidential Information or Highly 19 Confidential Information is returned or destroyed, the receiving party must submit a written 20 certification to the producing party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the designating party)
21 by the 60 day deadline that (1) all the Confidential Information or Highly Confidential 22 Information that was returned or destroyed, and (2) affirms that the receiving party has not 23 retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or 24 capturing any of the Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information.

25 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, 26 motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, 27 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert 28 work product, even if such materials contain Confidential Information or Highly Confidential

1 Information. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Confidential Information or 2 Highly Confidential Information remain subject to this Stipulated Protective Order. The 3 conclusion of the litigation shall be deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and 4 defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the 5 completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this action, 6 including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to 7 applicable law. After the conclusion of this action, this Court will retain jurisdiction to enforce 8 the terms of this Order.

9 12. Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive any applicable privilege or work product 10 protection, or to affect the ability of a party to seek relief for an inadvertent disclosure of material 11 protected by privilege or work product protection. Any witness or other person, firm or entity 12 from which discovery is sought may be informed of and may obtain the protection of this Order 13 by written advice to the parties' respective counsel or by oral advice at the time of any deposition 14 or similar proceeding.

15 13. In the event that any Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information 16 is inadvertently produced without such designation, the party or non-party that inadvertently 17 produced the information without designation shall give written notice of such inadvertent 18 production promptly after the party or non-party discovers the inadvertent failure to designate 19 (but no later than fourteen (14) calendar days after the party or non-party discovers the 20 inadvertent failure to designate), together with a further copy of the subject information 21 designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" (the "Inadvertent Production 22 Notice"). Upon receipt of such Inadvertent Production Notice, the party that received the 23 information that was inadvertently produced without designation shall promptly destroy the 24 inadvertently produced information and all copies thereof, or, at the expense of the producing 25 party or non-party, return such together with all copies of such information to counsel for the 26 producing party and shall retain only the newly-produced versions of that information that are 27 designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL." This provision is not 28 intended to apply to any inadvertent production of any information or materials protected by

1 attorney-client or work product privileges, which inadvertent production is governed by Section 2 14 below.

3 14. In the event that any party or non-party inadvertently produces information that is 4 privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure during the discovery process ("Inadvertent 5 Production Material"), the following shall apply:

6 (a) Such inadvertent production or disclosure shall in no way prejudice or 7 otherwise constitute a waiver of, or estoppel as to, any claim of attorney-client privilege, attorney 8 work product protection, or other applicable protection in this case or any other federal or state 9 proceeding, provided that the producing party shall notify the receiving party in writing of such 10 protection or privilege promptly after the producing party discovers such materials have been 11 inadvertently produced.

12 (b) If a claim of inadvertent production is made, pursuant to this Stipulated 13 Protective Order, with respect to discovery material then in the custody of another party, that 14 party shall: (i) refrain from any further examination or disclosure of the claimed Inadvertent 15 Production Material; (ii) promptly make a good-faith effort to return the claimed Inadvertent 16 Production Material and all copies thereof (including summaries and excerpts) to counsel for the 17 producing party, or destroy all such claimed Inadvertent Production Material (including 18 summaries and excerpts) and certify in writing to that fact; and (iii) not disclose or use the 19 claimed Inadvertent Production Material for any purpose until further order of the Court expressly 20 authorizing such use.

21 (c) A party may move the Court for an order compelling production of the 22 Inadvertent Production Material on the ground that it is not, in fact, privileged or protected. The 23 motion shall be filed under seal and shall not assert as a ground for entering such an order the fact 24 or circumstance of the inadvertent production. The producing party retains the burden of 25 establishing the privileged or protected nature of any inadvertently disclosed or produced 26 information. While such a motion is pending, the Inadvertent Production Material at issue shall 27 be treated in accordance with Paragraph 14(b) above.
28

1 (d) If a party, in reviewing discovery material it has received from any other 2 party or any non-party, finds anything the reviewing party believes in good faith may be 3 Inadvertent Production Material, the reviewing party shall: (i) refrain from any further 4 examination or disclosure of the potentially Inadvertent Production Material; (ii) promptly 5 identify the material in question to the producing party (by document number or other equally 6 precise description); and (iii) give the producing party seven (7) days to respond as to whether the 7 producing party will make a claim of inadvertent production. If the producing party makes such a 8 claim, the provisions of Paragraphs 14(a)-(c) above shall apply.

9 15. The parties agree that should the production of source code become necessary, 10 they will need to amend or supplement the terms of this Order. To the extent production of 11 source code becomes necessary in this case, the parties will work expeditiously to propose 12 amendments to this Order to cover any production of source code.

13 16. If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that 14 compels disclosure of any Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information, the 15 receiving party must:

16 (a) promptly notify in writing the designating party. Such notification shall 17 include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

18 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 19 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is 20 subject to this Stipulated Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this 21 Stipulated Protective Order; and

22 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by 23 the designating party whose Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information may be 24 affected.

25 If the designating party timely seeks a protective order, the party served with the subpoena
26 or court order shall not produce any Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information 27 before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order issued, unless the party has 28 obtained the designating party's permission. The designating party shall bear the burden and

1 expense of seeking protection in that court of its confidential material—and nothing in these 2 provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a receiving party in this action to 3 disobey a lawful directive from another court.

4 17. The following additional terms apply to non-party discovery material:

5 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a non-6 party in this action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.” 7 Such information produced by non-parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the 8 remedies and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as 9 prohibiting a non-party from seeking additional protections.

10 (b) In the event that a party is required, by a valid discovery request, to 11 produce a non-party’s confidential information in its possession, and the party is subject to an 12 agreement with the non-party not to produce the non-party’s confidential information, then the 13 party shall:

14 i. promptly notify in writing the requesting party and the non-party 15 that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with a non-16 party;

17 ii. promptly provide the non-party with a copy of the Stipulated 18 Protective Order in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific 19 description of the information requested; and 20 iii. make the information requested available for inspection by the non-21 party.

22 (c) If the non-party fails to object or seek a protective order from this Court 23 within 28 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the receiving party may 24 produce the non-party’s confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If the non-25 party timely seeks a protective order, the receiving party shall not produce any information in its 26 possession or control that is subject to the confidentiality agreement with the non-party before a 27 determination by the Court. Absent a court order to the contrary, the non-party shall bear the 28

1 burden and expense of seeking protection in this Court of its Confidential Information or Highly 2 Confidential Information.

3 18. Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order shall be construed to preclude any 4 party from asserting in good faith that certain Confidential Information or Highly Confidential 5 Information requires additional protections. The parties shall meet and confer to agree upon the 6 terms of such additional protection. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order no party 7 waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or 8 item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no party waives 9 any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this 10 Stipulated Protective Order. Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order abridges the right of any 11 person to seek its modification by the Court in the future.

12 Part Two: Use of Confidential Materials in Court

13 The following provisions govern the treatment of Confidential Information or Highly 14 Confidential Information used at trial or submitted as a basis for adjudication of matters other 15 than discovery motions or proceedings. These provisions are subject to Rules 2.550, 2.551, 2.580, 16 2.585, 8.160, and 8.490 of the California Rules of Court and must be construed in light of those 17 Rules.

18 19. A party that files with the Court, or seeks to use at trial, materials designated as 19 Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information, and who seeks to have the record 20 containing such information sealed, shall submit to the Court a motion or an application to seal, 21 pursuant to California Rule of Court 2.551.

22 20. A party that files with the Court, or seeks to use at trial, materials designated as 23 Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information by anyone other than itself, and who 24 does not seek to have the record containing such information sealed, shall comply with either of 25 the following requirements:

- 26 (a) At least ten (10) business days prior to the filing or use of the Confidential 27 Information or Highly Confidential Information, the submitting party shall 28 give notice to all other parties, and to any non-party that designated the

1 materials as Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information 2 pursuant to this Order, of the submitting party's intention to file or use the 3 Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information, including 4 specific identification of the Confidential Information or Highly 5 Confidential Information. Any affected party or non-party may then file a 6 motion to seal, pursuant to California Rule of Court 2.551(b); or

7 (b) At the time of filing or desiring to use the Confidential Information or 8 Highly Confidential Information, the submitting party shall submit the 9 materials pursuant to the lodging-under-seal provision of California Rule of 10 Court 2.551(d). Any affected party or non-party may then file a motion to 11 seal, pursuant to the California Rule of Court 2.551(b), within ten (10)
12 business days after such lodging. Documents lodged pursuant to California 13 Rule of Court 2.551(d) shall bear a legend stating that such materials shall 14 be unsealed upon expiration of ten (10) business days, absent the filing of a 15 motion to seal pursuant to Rule 2.551(b) or Court order.

16 21. In connection with a request to have materials sealed pursuant to Paragraph 12 or 17 Paragraph 13, the requesting party's declaration pursuant to California Rule of Court 2.551(b)(1) 18 shall contain sufficient particularity with respect to the particular Confidential Information or 19 Highly Confidential Information and the basis for sealing to enable the Court to make the findings 20 required by California Rule of Court 2.550(d).
